DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment which included cancellation of claims 1-7, 9-11, 14-15, addition of new claim 43 and amendment to claims 8, 12, 13 16, 23, 26, and 30-42, filed on 7/8/2005.

Claims 8, 12, 13 and 16-43 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 8, 12, 13 and 43, drawn to a bicyclotriazine of formula 1 classified in class 544, subclass 184, class 514, subclass 243
- II. Claims 16-22 drawn to a method for carrying out binding assay using compound of formula I, classified in classes 514, 252, 524, 424 etc, subclasses 241, 300, 100 etc. depending upon choice of other ingredients.
- III. Claims 23-24 drawn to another method of use of compound of formula I for treating various cancers and restenosis, classified in class 514, subclass 243.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

As per MPEP § 803, there are two criteria for a proper requirement for restriction between patentably distinct inventions:

- (A) The inventions must be independent or distinct as claimed and
- (B) There must be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is required.

Both conditions are to be met with.

Inventions I and II- 1II are related product and the distinct processes of using the product. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process of using the compound of claim 8 can be can be practiced with another materially different product. See references cited in the IDS as well as instant claims 28-29 wherein several additional ingredients are recited as useful for the said treatment of cancers. Similarly, it is clear from the claims and the prior art that the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product such as method of use for carrying binding assays for different receptors or enzymes and method of use to treat various cancers and restenosis. Consequently, the groups have different classifications and require separate prior art searches. Their method of making and their uses are distinct as evidenced by applicants' specification and several references cited in the Information Disclosure Statement. Art, which may render obvious or anticipate one of the groups would not necessarily do the same for the other group. Each can support a patent, as the compounds of each group are capable of being utilized alone not in combination with other members listed in the Markush group.

In addition, searching all cores of compounds besides triazine core, the various processes of using different ingredients and their limitations, which is mandatory, would be a serious search burden.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

In view of distinct nature of invention, the restriction is set forth in writing.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).
